Robin-Thanks so much for getting back to us about the schedule.

We would also be open to scheduling a call this week to go through a few questions/issues if there were a subset that you were prepared to discuss. Then, we could have a follow up next week as well to discuss the rest, as I am not sure whether or not we can get through all the questions in one call anyway.

If you think that this might work, feel free to let Quintin know and we can put that out to the larger group as an option.

Hi Quintin,

I don't think I can have answers to all of your questions this week. There were five pages of questions. I'll probably have to review dates for the following week – the week of Sept. 19

Subject: EPA/WDNR Legal authority Review Conference Call

EPA would like to schedule a conference call with appropriate staff at WDNR. The call will center on the most recent questions raised by EPA regarding review of WDNR rule revisions. A copy of the questions is attached to this email.

EPA request your availability to schedule a conference call the week of September 12, 2016. If you have any question, I can be contacted at (312) 886-0135.
